Great news, Michael. I'll be watching for that impact.

Thanks Doug. Appreciate the update on that positive development.

On the federal side, the regulatory orders under the Emergency Act are just now signed, and we have briefed infrastructure operators like airports on them. I think there will be some early actions on freezing financial accounts used to fund illegal blockades. The combination of Ontario and federal measures should real help restore law and order on the streets in Ottawa, and make it easier to keep the bridges to the US open.

Good afternoon,

Further to our discussion this morning, I was in contact with DM Ditommaso (SolGen). He advised that he had a similar conversation with the OPP leadership earlier today. I suspect that we will see more field action related to vehicle registrations in the very near future.
